We have installed a forum space dedicated to Full Ace, which is available through the link on the left. This will be the place to discuss about the game and hopefully many other things. We will of course be available through this forum. You will probably understand though that we won't be able to answer all the questions you may ask about our project, whether because we want to keep things to ourselves or we just don't have the time. Nevertheless, we will try our best to be available and inform you.
