

Let's play !

Last Updated Tuesday, 08 September 2009 09:55

We are glad to present you with the first playable demo of Full Ace. It includes the beginning of the tutorial mode (or tennis school, I should say). You will get acquainted with Full Ace's unique gameplay, which might disturb you at first but we think will bring more depth and challenge to the game. If you encounter any problem while running this demo, please refer to the dedicated threads in the forum for asking questions/getting information. Here is the link for downloading (you will need a pad controller to play) :
